CHAPTER 88

AN ACT

For the relief of the law firm of Harrington and Graham.

March 5, 1952
[H.R. 2672]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the law firm of Harrington and Graham, Washington, District of Columbia, the sum of $438.16. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of the claim of such firm against the United States for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by such firm in connection with the defense of Toneo Shirakura and Osamu Watanabe, certain Japanese sergeants wrongfully accused, convicted, and sentenced to be hanged as violators of the laws and customs of war by the United States of America: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved March 5, 1952.
